

THE PAST PERFECT

1. Which is the correct definition of the past perfect?

- A. To describe an event that happened before another event in the past
- B. To describe an event that happened after another event in the past
- C. To describe one main event in the past.

2. How do we form the past perfect?

- A. have/haven't and a past participle
- B. Had or hadn't and a past participle
- C. The verb be and a past participle

3. Pronunciation

Finish the contractions and match the phonetic transcription to the correct contraction.

/hid si:n/ /jud si:n/ /ðɪd si:n/ /wid si:n/ /itd si:n/ /jid si:n/

Past perfect	Contraction	Transcription
I had seen	I'd seen	/aɪd si:n/
You had seen	You'd seen	/jʊd si:n/
He had seen
She had seen
It had seen
We had seen
You had seen
They had seen

Complete the gaps using the past perfect and the past simple.

4. On Saturday morning I finished my Geography homework, then after lunch I played my favourite videogame!

After the boy _____ (finish) his Geography homework he _____ (play) his favourite videogame.

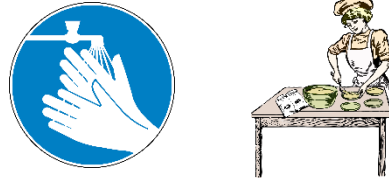

5. The teacher made a mistake on the board. I told her about it after the lesson.

I _____ (not tell) the teacher about the mistake until the lesson _____ (finish).

6. In the morning I normally wash my hands before cooking lunch.

He _____ (wash) his hands before he _____ (cook) lunch.

7. I learned to ride a bike when I was 5 years old!

By the age of five, I _____ (learn) to ride a bike.

8. Write your own sentences

1. By the age of 5, _____.
2. By the age of ____, _____.
3. By the age of ____, _____.
4. By the age of ____, _____.
5. By the age of ____, _____.

